WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 1855.

Rain—rain—rain is the order of the day and night.

Hon. Pierre Soule, late Minister to Spain, and family, have reached Washington.

Gen. Quatin is in Washington. This don't look much like filibustering—does it?

FAMILY STABBED.—A young man, Asa Sanders, was fatally stabbed by Samuel Laughlin, in New York.

It is said that Gen. Shields, of Ill., will be made a Brigadier General in the U. S. army. He has proven himself a first rate soldier, and bullet proof.

Anthony Burns has been in Boston. Those officers who were most earnest in enforcing the fugitive slave law in Burn's case, have given most toward purchasing his freedom.

The New Orleans Picayune, of the 27th ult., announces the arrival of Dr. J. C. Gunn, at New Orleans, who had an audience with the public spirited officer before giving the New York Legislature notice, if they pass the Police Bill, now before them, to self-resign.

CINCINNATI.—U. S. Green & Son sell at their auction rooms, No. 80 Third street, this morning, at 10 o'clock, what they want buyers should attend.

By last night's mail, we received the Feb. number of Hall's Journal of Health. We have had time to look into it, but like its motto—"HEALTH IS A DUTY."

CINCINNATI.—James Birney, master of the well-known and vigorous writer, has assumed the editorial control of that sterling民主黨 sheet.

A FIGHT.—Two lawyers, partners in business, had a round of fisticuffs yesterday. They fought and hit, and gouged, and cut, until separated by bystanders. A money transaction is said to have originated the "fighth."

Grant Thorburn has settled himself, apparently for life, in the town of Winsted, Litchfield county, Ct., and amuses himself by writing letters to the "Mountain County Herald," published in that town.

The Massachusetts legislature has lately received a remonstrance from the "solid men of Boston," and the State generally, against removing Judge Loring. It is held, by such names as Edward Everett and Abell Lawrence.

GIFT.—Mrs. Thomas Anderson & Co., will sell a general assortment of dry goods, gold, silver, and gilt watches, cutlery, &c., & Dr. Deacon will please notice their advertisement under the regular auction head.

We see by California papers, that Fred. M. Keed, the actor, has presented with a sum valued at $25, his admiring friends in Marysville, Sean Denin made Fred. A different sort of a case presentation, once on a time, on the back of Erie, but quite as deserving.

AN ARMY OF OFFICERS.—The Massachusetts State Register, just issued, contains the names of eight hundred and forty-one justices of the peace who reside in Boston, and since the volume went to press, the Governor and Council have added to the number!

REMOR.—It will be seen by advertisement that Mr. Fisher has removed his hat and cap store to the north side of Market street, next opposite his old stand. His assortment is good, and his stock of hats, caps, &c., embrace nine of the most beautiful to be found in this city.

Some fears appear to be entertained in New Orleans, that when the spring rains begin to descend, the immense quantity of snow which has fallen on the upper Mississippi and its numerous tributaries shall have melted, the city will be overwhelmed by an excess of overflow.

A YOUTHFUL MURDERER.—In Russia, Henrikus K., two boys, 12 or 14 years old, had a quarrel, when one went into the house and asked his mother to hand him a pistol from a shelf, which she did, and he shot the other boy through the head, killing him instantly.

PARADES MISSING.—The Cordis (Ky.) Ledger, notices the mysterious disappearance from that town of the Rev. Clarke King, a highly respectable Baptist preacher. He left home to visit Bourbon county. The Ledger intimates that he has absented himself on account of being involved in debt.

RETAIL STORE OF DAY GOODS AND NOTICES AT AUCTION.—Mr. C. Spencer, salaried at $100 a month, at his auction room, No. 60 Fourth street, a retail stock of dry goods, military goods, and notions, to which we call the attention of the trade. The goods, we are informed, must be sold, so look out for bargains.

WHOLESALE CLOTHING.—Messrs. Lichten, Loeenthal & Co., on the west-most corner of Fifth and Main streets, have a large and complete assortment of ready-made clothing, for the wants of the trade. They enjoy excellent facilities, and possess large experience in the manufacture of clothing. It would be well for country merchants, generally, to give them a call.

WE INFORM THE CINCINNATI EQUERIST, quire a complimentary notice of Mr. George Mello. We cheerfully unite with the Equerist in the sentiment expressed. Mr. M. has established good order and decorum in every part of the theater—hence no one is disturbed or annoyed during the performance. We had led for just such a manager at the Louisville theater, and we are sure he will be in success, because he deserves it.

THE CAMPBELL MINISTERIES.—This celebrated company of musicians, vocalists, &c., commence a series of their unique entertainments at Mozart Hall to-night. Since the Campbell performed here last year, quite a number of new and talented artists have been added to the troupe, and we can safely promise all who visit them a rich musical treat. The programme for this evening is an excellent one, and we earnestly advise everybody to attend.

PAINFUL OCCURRENCE.—A fire broke out in a small brick building in St. Louis, in which lived a servant and two children, belonging to Mr. Skinner. The mother had gone out for a few moments, leaving the children, one two, and the other three years old, the older a small boy, in the care of a friend of hers. Upon the alarm she hastened home, and found both her little boy and girl buried to death. It is not known whether the fire originated.

NEWS FROM BANTA.—The Ohio State Journal learns by a private letter that Major Cunningham, Paymaster of the United States army, has been robbed by some of the seducers about San Francisco, of forty thousand dollars in gold and silver. He offers a reward of twenty-five hundred dollars for the recovery of the money and the conviction of the robbers. Major Cunningham formerly represented the Probate district in Congress, and is a highly honorable man.

EASTERN LOGAN.—Harris, who has been confined in the jail of that country, awaiting trial for the murder of George Gandy, made his escape from the jail on Friday night. The doors were opened by skeleton guard, from the outside.—Shakley News, N. H.

MR. J. P. HEAVY, who相识ed Mr. Heavy Hippie in Jackson, Miss., a few days ago, causing his almost instant death, has been committed for trial.

We copy the following from the New York Head, of the 3d:
